STEP NEARER AUTO ENGINE

Town Council Appoints a Committee to Confer with Fire Company Committee about New Engine Interesting Meeting of Council.

Another step forward toward the purchase of additional fire fighting apparatus was taken by the town council, at their regular October meeting Tuesday evening, when a committee was appointed to confer with a similar committee from the fire company and to make a report of their recommendations at the next regular meeting of council.

A representative of the American LaFrance Fire Engine Company was present to advance the respective merits of two automobile fire engines. Council took to the four cylinder engine, having a capacity of 500 gallons a minute, the price of which is $8000. Several months ago the merits of a $1500 two tank chemical motor truck were presented and the joint committee will now decide between these and the other machines on the market and then report to council. It is understood that council will not authorize the purchase of an automobile engine, to cost $6000 or more, without half of the amount first being raised by popular subscription.

The committee from the town council consists of Messrs. Trostel, Keith and Butt. The committee from the fire company is Dr. Henry Stewart, Charles H. Wilson, Frank B. Slonaker, William B. Flemming, and George A. McClellan.

Tarvia Collections

The borough treasurer was instructed to make collections of all subscriptions for tarvia and oil treatment of the streets of town by soliciting personally the subscribers and, where payments are refused, that suits be entered for their collection.

W. T. Ziegler appeared before council to protest against the water from the land north of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad being allowed to flood his building in the rear of Washington street. The structure, formerly used by the stacker factory, is now occupied by H. T. Maring and, at the time of heavy rains, is flooded with several inches of water. Mr. Ziegler claimed this was due to council raising the alley after his building was constructed. The highway committee was given the complaint with instructions to investigate and to report at the next regular meeting of council.

Officer Complaints

Officer Emmons appeared before council to complain of insults alleged to be offered him by college students and to ask for further instructions from council relative to stopping student parades. Mr. Emmons calling attention to the Burgess' repudiating his—Mr. Emmons'—action of last Friday night. The officer was told that he was entirely under the direction of the Burgess and that council could not give him orders, but that they were of the opinion student parades did no harm so long as they were conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable hour. They suggested that, in the future, if the officer feels he has sufficient cause to arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct, that he make such arrest. It was stated that no permit was required to hold a parade.

Board of Health

A recent Act of Assembly places the appointment of all boards of health in the hands of the president of the town council. President Trostel re-appointed the present board for these terms, C. W. Myers 5 years, F. Mark Bream 4 years, H. B. Bender 3 years, Dr. Henry Stewart 2 years, Dr. J. P. Dalbey 1 year. Appointments in the future will all be made for five years.

Pavements

A communication was received from J. H. Colliflower relative to notice sent by the town council ordering pavement built at his property on Howard street. He asked whether pavements were being ordered at other places as unimportant. Following the reading of the communication a motion was passed instructing the highway committee to proceed at once to lay pavement in question and to charge the cost of the pavement to the owner of the property.

T. P. Turner asked that the town council arrange with the Western Maryland railroad so that there may be an exit to the yard of the Lighting Company plant after he builds pavement on Railroad street. Referred to highway committee.

Joseph Matthews appeared to ask some relief on account of lack of pavements on South Washington street be-

COUNTY POOR DIRECTORS ACT

State Department of Health Objects to Sewage Disposal Arrangement, at County Home. Must Put in New System

Following their plan to prevent further objectionable conditions at Rock Creek, on account of the entrance into that stream of sewage, the State Department of Health has notified the Board of Poor Directors of Adams County to make some other disposal of the filth from that institution.

For many years the entire sewer system of the Adams County Home has had Rock Creek as its outlet. This, with the town's sewage and other drainage, has made an almost unbearable condition at times along the nearby stream and, some weeks ago, the town council received a plan and instructions for the disposal of the borough sewage. The plan was ratified.

The board of poor directors at a meeting this week decided to build their own system, running from the County Home to a point beyond the pest house, about five hundred feet in length, to end with a large cess pool. On Tuesday S. Miley Miller, made the necessary surveys and, after the plans are completed, they will be submitted to the State Department of Health for their approval or for suggestions as to necessary change. The system is expected to be rather expensive though the cost has not yet been ascertained.

Inspections have been made of a number of almshouses in this general vicinity but no official visit has been made to the local institution for a general inspection.

Plank and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Holtzworth, John Wislitzky, Daniel Skelly Jr., Charles Kimple, Mahlon Hartzell, R. K. Major, William Allison, Harry Culp, C. E. Barbehenn, John McDonnell, Luther McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. William Armer, Harry Wentz, Horace Smiley, Earl Dietrick, P. W. Stallsmith, Harry Holtzworth, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Tate, S. M. Bushman, Misses Daisy Wentz and Margaret Gilliland.

Between the Zinn row and his properties. Council authorized the building of a uniform concrete curb from the Zinn row to Steinwehr avenue and instructed the Secretary to send notices to property owners concerned to put down suitable walks until permanent pavements can be built. The usual one-third of the cost of curbs is to be borne by the property owners.

Several citizens on East Water street asked that pavement be ordered at the W. L. Hafer lot on that street. Notice was ordered sent.

Martin Winter sent a letter calling attention to the dangerous condition of the pavement at the Jacobs property on Chambersburg street on account of a change in grade at the Plank property adjoining.

Seventeen citizens sent a petition to council asking for better pavements at the Spalding property, corner of York and Stratton streets. The usual pavement notice was ordered sent for pavement on the York street side.

BUSY DAYS AT PLAYGROUNDS

Extensive Grading Operation for Foot Ball and Base Ball Fields now in full swing. Skating Pond not yet a Sure Thing.

The extent of operations now in progress at the Kurtz Playgrounds can only be realized by a visit to that place where several squads of men are at work on various portions while small parties of children may be seen, after school hours, playing on other parts of the tract.

This week the foundation of the care-taker's house will be commenced and it is the purpose of the contractor to get the residence as far under way this fall as possible. The necessary excavation was completed recently and the dwelling is to be located close to the lane at the southwest corner of the lot.

The grading for the foot ball field has proved to be a big task. Deep cuts and large fills have been required to bring the land to the proper grade and that work, while well on now, is going to take several weeks to complete. The ground from the cuts is being used at the fills but always the surface soil is removed first and then held to complete the fill and to give the best possible prospect for early sod.

The foot ball gridiron and base ball diamonds will be at the same general location, as the two sports do not conflict with each other in time.

The question of a skating and bathing place is still undecided. The springs which feed the small stream running through the tract will have to be tested before a definite decision on this is made. It seems likely, however, that the skating pond will come, even if there is not sufficient water to construct a dam deep enough for bathing purposes.

The popularity of the playground, even in its primitive stage of development, is a strong indication of the happiness it will give Gettysburg's young people after everything is completed.

MINISTERS FAVOR LINCOLN HIGHWAY

General Satisfaction over Coast to Coast Highway through Gettysburg. Favorable Attitude of Churchmen to the Idea.

The idea of constructing an improved highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific as an enduring memorial to Abraham Lincoln has been favorably commented on by a number of leaders of the Episcopal, Congregational and other religious denominations.

In a letter to A. R. Pardington, vice-president of the Lincoln Highway Association, some of the pastors have declared their willingness to on Sunday, November 2, use the life of Abraham Lincoln as a text for their sermons. There is to be a dedication celebration in almost every city on the route of the Lincoln Highway on Friday evening, October 31 which will make these sermons particularly appropriate.

Among the expressions as to Abraham Lincoln received by Mr. Pardington, is one from Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, who delivered an address here during the fiftieth anniversary and who writes:

"Be the reasons what they may, when the Ruler of Nations wishes to secure a forward movement of society He has passed by the king's palace in favor of the poor man's house. When God wished a father for the bondsman, He went to a log cabin in Kentucky. Calling to His side Heaven's favorite angel—the Angel of Suffering—'Oh Sorrow, thou best-loved child of Heaven and earth, take thou this child and rear him for Me, and make him great. Plant his path thick with thorns, cut his little feet with sharp rocks, load his young back with heavy burdens, pull out of his arms everything he loves, break his heart a thousand times, like a box of alabaster ointment, and when he is strong by burden-bearing, sympathetic through suffering to the sigh of any black child, when every footprint up the hill of Difficulty has been made crimson with his blood, bring him back to the throne and with him there shall be emancipated three million slaves.'

"That is how the great God made Abraham Lincoln to be the greatest man in the history of the republic."

Writing on the Lincoln Highway Rev. S. Parkes Cadman D. D. of Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, says:

"The Lincoln Highway would be a novel memorial of our great President and one which adds to all its other excellencies the peculiar merit of a high degree of usefulness for the traveling public. Such a road, traversing the continent, would become as famous as the great avenues built by the Romans in Europe and in my judgment it would perpetuate the transcendent name and works of Lincoln beyond any building, or marble edifice, indeed beyond all else except his impress on the actual history of the nations."

EPISCOPALIANS MEET IN NEW YORK TODAY

General Convention Will Last Until October 25.

New York, Oct. 8.—The forty-fourth general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in America began today at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The sessions will last probably until Oct. 25, and an elaborate program for each day has been arranged. Chief interest, however, centers about the meetings of the house of bishops and the house of deputies.

The latter body will hold open sessions in the new Synod Hall. This building, the gift of the late J. P. Morgan and the late W. Bayard Cutting, is not yet completed, but it was formally received in behalf of the church by Bishop Greer in the presence of several distinguished clergymen and other invited guests.

The convention was formally opened this morning with the celebration of holy communion in the cathedral. There was a procession of bishops and clergy and an elaborate musical program. Most Rev. Dr. Daniel S. Tuttle, bishop of Missouri, and the presiding bishop of the church, was the celebrant. He was assisted by Bishops Groer and Burch of New York. The convention sermon was preached by Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts. The music was by the regular cathedral choir, under the direction of Miles Farrow.

This evening there is to be a festival service in the cathedral, in which a choir of 300 voices, composed of the choirs of the Cathedral, Trinity, Grace and St. James churches and the Trinity and St. Agnes chapels of Trinity parish, will take part.

MINE HERO CRITICALLY ILL

Man Who Was Entombed Eight Days In Serious Condition.

Centra, Pa., Oct. 8.—With his feet swollen to twice their normal size, in addition to an acute attack of nervousness, due to reaction following his entombment of eight days, Thomas Toehy, who was liberated from his underground prison in the mammoth vein on the Continental colliery last Saturday, is in a serious condition at his home, with Dr. H. G. Fortner, who fed him through a tube at the mine, in attendance.

The doctor warned him that if he persisted in moving about so extensively so soon after his entombment fatal results would perhaps occur.

Paralysis Shuts High School.

Laconia, N. H., Oct. 8.—The school board has closed the high school as the result of the death of Burton Burnham, fullback on the football team, from infantile paralysis. Burnham was ill just one day. Louis Hutchins, fullback on the team, has been ill for two days, and his condition is held to be serious. Burnham played in the game on Saturday against Holiden.

MAKE CURRENCY PARTY MEASURE

Senate Leaders to Bar Republicans From Its Consideration.

MAY TAKE IT INTO CAUOUS

President Wilson Suggests That Minority Should Not Be Permitted to Obstruct Democratic Program.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Conferees between President Wilson and Democratic leaders in the senate gave practical assurance that the currency bill would be made a party measure, the Democrats of the senate committee considering it separately, as was done in the house.

By such an arrangement it is expected that the administration bill, amended to some extent, would receive a vote of at least 5 to 2, or possibly 6 to 1.

Should it be impossible to obtain a majority report from the entire committee it is proposed to take the bill from the committee by the party caucus route to the floor of the senate to press it for passage at the present session.

President Wilson discussed the situation with Senator Clarke, president pro tem. of the senate; Senator Kern, the majority leader, and Senator James. Mr. Wilson told them the Republican minority should not be permitted to obstruct the Democratic program.

The statement by Representative Glass, chairman of the house committee, attacking the attitude of Senator Hitchcock, and characterizing the senate hearings as a waste of time, it was said, would strengthen the determination of some senate committee members to urge important amendments.

Senator Owen, chairman of the banking and currency committee, and Senator Lewis, of Illinois, the majority whip, also conferred with the president.

"I believe," said Owen, "that the currency bill should be made a party matter. I shall insist on a prompt report of this bill to the senate." He thought hearings should be closed much before Oct. 25.

Lewis announced that Owen had instructed him to keep Democrats together and that he would begin work on the situation at once, cancelling an address he was to make Thursday at Springfield, Ill.

The senate currency hearings were resumed, with the definite understanding that they will continue until Oct. 25, if important witnesses appear.

An attempt by Senator Owen to terminate the hearings Oct. 18 had been defeated by his committee by a vote of six to four, in which Senators Reed and Hitchcock, Democrats, joined four Republican members, Senators Nelson, Weeks, Bristow and Crawford, in voting against the termination of hearings; while Senators Owen, Shafroth, Hollis and Pomerene voted for Oct. 18.

George H. Shibley, director of the bureau of political research, renewed his charge before the committee that the "trustocrats" had driven college professors who "espouse the cause of the people" from their positions. Senator Weeks demanded the names of professors who had been treated thus.

"Professor Edward W. Bemis, of Chicago university," replied Shibley, "was discharged because he attacked the Chicago gas trust. John R. Commons, of Syracuse, was discharged for voting for William Jennings Bryan. James Allen Smith, of Marietta, Ohio, was driven from his place."

"The present president of the United States had a narrow escape because he advocated the short ballot. But he continued in the service of the people and now has triumphed."

TO ARREST 63 CONGRESSMEN

House Leaders Think "Quorum" Can Be Found Only at the Gall Game.

Washington, Oct. 8.—With warrants for the arrest of sixty-three congressmen, enough to complete a quorum in the house for consideration of the urgent deficiency bill, sergeants-at-arms searched the capitol, while the house settled down to wait. Leaders thought the warrants could be served only at the ball grounds in Philadelphia.

Making good his threat that a majority of the house must be on hand to do business, so long as President Wilson insists on congress remaining in session, the minority leader, Mr. Mann, made a point of no quorum as soon as the house met.

Thirty-two Connecticut Towns "Dry."

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 8.—The compilation of Monday's election on the liquor question throughout the state showed that of the forty-six towns which voted on the issue thirty-two voted to go "dry" for the next two years. Thirteen went "wet," while the vote in the town of Stafford was a tie. The result was a gain of one town for the "wets." The chief surprise was the decisive "dry" victory in the new town of Bristol.

"Kidnapped" Girl Found.

York, Pa., Oct. 8.—Ellen Stiffler, the nine-year-old girl who, it was reported, had been kidnapped on Monday, is safe in the hands of her grandparents at Seitzland, this county. The girl was taken to Seitzland by her father, Clarence Stiffler, of Philadelphia.

SAY TANGO SLAYER IS "PLAIN CRAZY"

Wholesale Concession of Murder is Laid to Dope.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—A speedy trial for the murder of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat on Sept. 25 was promised to Henry Spencer, whose confessions of twenty murders, woven by an opium clouded brain, dumfounded the police.

The authorities will continue to investigate his fantastic stories, in the hope of establishing further facts concerning them.

His admission of the Rexroat crime is substantiated by evidence. He is known to have committed many of the large number of burglaries he has confessed to, and there is a possibility that he may have slain Mrs. Anabel Wright last December. She was beaten to death with a hammer by a man who had rented a room and robbed her.

The remainder of Spencer's "murders" are believed to be the dreams of a man obsessed by that form of insanity known as "delirium tremens," a delusion described as penitentiary insanity.

Mrs. Sarah Schramm identified Spencer as the man who lodged at her house last winter and attacked her with a hammer. He was frightened away by the return from school of Mrs. Schramm's daughter.

"Do you know this woman?" Spencer was asked.

"Her face is familiar."

"Did you hit her on the head with a hammer?"

"What is her address?" Spencer asked.

"No. 137 Lincoln avenue."

"Oh, yes, I remember; I hit her on the head with a hammer."

At this reply Mrs. Schramm became hysterical and had to be given medical treatment.

Effective June 15, 1913.

SARECKY SAYS HE SIGNED CHECKS

Takes All Blame For Sulzer's Campaign Funds.

ALLAN RYAN AGAIN TESTIFIES

Swears Governor Sought Aid of Murphy and Root to Stop Impeachment.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Louis A. Sarecky supplied for Governor Sulzer at his impeachment trial a full and sweeping defense, during which he left the witness stand to assume the role of "Jim the Penman."

He wrote the governor's name four times to prove that he, and not the governor, had signed many of the check endorsements that beset the path of the defense.

Sarecky assumed responsibility for every material act relating to the articles of impeachment which charge the governor with making a false statement of his campaign funds. Sarecky swore that the governor told him it made no difference who signed the statement, so long as it complied with the law.

"I went outside and worked on the statement for a day and a half," Sarecky testified, "and brought it to Governor Sulzer. He signed it, and I took it to the notary and he signed it and mailed it to the secretary of state."

Sarecky added that Sulzer did not read the statement and had nothing to do with his preparing it. Sarecky was Governor Sulzer's private secretary.

Lieutenant Commander Louis M. Josephthal, the governor's naval aide, testified that early in July last, at Gettysburg, Mrs. Sulzer told him that the 500 shares of Big Four and 200 of American Smelters lying in her husband's name in the brokerage house of Harris & Fuller were really hers and that Mr. Sulzer had been borrowing money on them. A few minutes later the governor asked Mr. Josephthal to pay $25,000 and take over the account, which was done.

In relation to this testimony it should be remembered that on the night of the Sulzer impeachment in the assembly Mrs. Sulzer told Senator Palmer that she was to blame for the stock speculation charged against the governor; also that on the order which Mr. Josephthal presented to Harris & Fuller for transfer of the account was written "William Sulzer for Mrs. Sulzer."

Herbert H. Lehman, of New York, treasurer of Governor Sulzer's campaign fund, testified he gave Sulzer $5000 in cash on Sept. 25, 1912, "without any reservation." The governor's attorneys declared they proposed to show that this was a part of the money the governor used in Wall street.

Prior to this evidence Allan A. Ryan testified that Governor Sulzer attempted to get the influence of Charles F. Murphy to stop the trial of his impeachment, and in return therefor said "he was willing to do whatever was right," according to the testimony of Allan A. Ryan at the trial.

The testimony was given after the court, by a secret vote of 41 to 14, decided to admit it upon the record of Ryan's testimony Monday. This was that Governor Sulzer had asked him to induce State Chairman William Barnes to influence the Republican votes of the members of the court to declare the impeachment proceedings illegal because they were brought during an extraordinary session of the legislature. He said he did not attempt to see Mr. Root.

The admission of this testimony opened the doors to Ryan's story of the governor's alleged attempt to make peace with Tammany Hall on the eve of his trial.

Ryan said that Sulzer asked him to see Delancey Nicoll, his father's attorney, and request him to see Charles F. Murphy.

"He wanted me," said the witness, "to have Mr. Nicoll sway Mr. Murphy to endeavor to call off this inquiry by getting his following to vote that the assembly had no right to impeach him. He said Mr. Nicoll could be the go-between and that he (Sulzer) was ready to do whatever was right."

"What did you do in regard to seeing Delancey Nicoll?" asked Attorney Stanchfield, of counsel for the impeachment managers.

"I told the governor," replied the witness, "that I would see what I could do, and went out into the country and forgot it."

Ryan was not cross-examined.

The defense then opened its case.

POSTMASTER KILLS ROBBER

Stillwater, N. Y., Official Shoots Down Yeggman and Injures Another.

Stillwater, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Frank Stunts, postmaster of this town, fought a desperate pistol battle in the dark with two yeggmen, who had dynamited the postoffice safe, killed one of the men and injured the other, who escaped.

Stunts was not injured, although five shots were fired at him from a distance of less than twenty feet.

Stunts was awakened by a muffled explosion. He hurried to the postoffice, a short distance from his home. As he neared the building a bullet whistled past his ear. Stunts fired at a man standing in the shadow of the postoffice. The man groaned and fell.

The safe blower inside the building rushed to the door and blazed away at Stunts. Stunts' first shot struck him down and killed him. After a short running battle with the injured man the latter made his escape.

STORM-SWEPT NOME MENACED BY FIRE

Flames and Gale Almost Wipe Out Alaskan Camp.

Nome, Alaska, Oct. 8.—Fire has broken out in the storm stricken city of Nome and the flames have attacked the Pacific cold storage plant, where is stored the chief supply of meat for the winter. The fire apparatus was destroyed in the gale.

Front street is a seething mass of wreckage, into which seas are breaking, while hundreds of homeless persons are struggling to save the necessities of life. Receding seas are carrying away the contents of wrecked houses and stores, as well as parts of wrecked structures. None of the buildings in the sandpit remain standing, and the leveled structures there are in flames. This portion of the community is cut off by the turbulent waters.

The storm which on Sunday night began beating in from Bering sea was the worst ever known. Men and women worked all night in the icy water to save their household effects. The electric light plant was wrecked and the telephone service was cut off. The loss is estimated at $1,500,000. There will be much suffering and outside help will be required. Winter is at hand, and it will be impossible to get in all the supplies needed.

ATHLETICS TRIM GIANTS IN OPENER

Pound Marquard and Crandall From Pitcher's Box.

Baker Scores Home Run

But Collins Was the Star, With a Triple, Two Singles, a Pass, Stolen Base and Three of Team's Runs.

New York, Oct. 8.—This time Bender triumphed. In 1905 and 1911 the stoutest-hearted Indian of them all lost his first game to the Giants, but on the Polo Grounds, before the greatest assemblage that ever witnessed a ball game in America, the Indian proved that he was supreme. Score: Athletics, 6; New York, 4.

While the teams nearly broke even on the number of hits, and the Athletics had two errors by Barry, the hits of the Mackmen came at most opportune moments. Bender went along as smoothly as ever, mowing down the opposition with apparent ease until his teammates gave him a big lead, and then the Chippewa got into one of his careless streaks and the Giants came on with a rush, but which were abruptly checked by the supporting cast of the Indian.

Collins was given the first pass of the game, and he also pilfered the only base. But one Giant attempted to beat Schang's peg to second, and he failed. That warning was sufficient. McGraw used up three pitchers in a vain effort to check the free hitting of the Athletics. He gave the fans a surprise when he sent Marquard to the hill. "Rube" had a lot of stuff, but he had nothing that fooled the Mackmen. Eight hits in five innings, which caused five runs, caused Marquard's withdrawal.

Crandall, who relieved Marquard, got through two innings cleverly, then the "Three Musketeers," Collins, McInnis and Baker, got busy, and Tesreau was called in to finish the game. Four solid hits in the fourth inning, including two triples and a double, netted three runs and then in the fifth inning, after two men were out, Collins walked and J. Franklin Baker, with the Athletics' rosters shouting for a home run, slammed the ball into the right field bleachers for a circuit clout. The New York fans were dazed. They did not expect that the third sacker of the Mackles would repeat his 1911 performances. Marquard, helpless and downcast, stood in the pitching box, waiting for the relief that McGraw would not send him. The Athletic supporters went wild with delight.

The four hits from the bats of the Mackmen in the fourth inning stunned the Giants. Collins, the first man up, slammed the ball over Centrefielder Shafer's head for a triple. Only fast fielding prevented the Athletics' second sacker from getting a home run. Baker followed with a hit past Doyle, which scored Collins. McInnis sacrificed and Strunk grounded to Marquard, who retired Baker at third. Then Jack Barry, redoubtable in the pinches, came through with the rining double, placing Strunk on third. Schang, Mack's wonderful catcher, then landed on the ball for a hard wallop to center, which Shafer fielded badly. It went for a triple and Barry and Strunk scored. Then Bender went out on a grounder to Marquard, ending the inning.

The Giants came back at the American leaguers in their half of the fifth and scored three runs on three singles, an error by Barry and an infield out. McCormick, pinch-hitting for Marquard, singled in the fifth and Crandall took up mound duty for the Giants in the sixth. McLean batted for Crandall in the seventh, and Tesreau finished the game.

Total paid attendance was 36,291; total receipts, $75,255. Of this sum the National Commission receives $7525, the clubs $13,546 each, and the players $40,638. The score:

THERE are other sweepers that have permanent brush attachment but there is no sweeper we know of beside the Model "S" that has a REAL Carpet Sweeper running in combination with the vacuum cleaner. This is a feature that every housewife has been looking for. She has insisted that she have something to pick up every particle of lint, hairs, threads, matches, etc., and the ordinary vacuum cleaner has not accomplished this.
